

Meet & Assist at Airport

Upon arriving at Airport, you will be warmly welcomed by our airport representative, who will assist you throughout the customs process and luggage collection. After these formalities, you will be escorted to your private air-conditioned vehicle waiting just outside the terminal, ready to transport you to your hotel.

Giza Pyramids & GEM Tour

After enjoying breakfast at your hotel, at 9 AM, you will meet your private guide in the lobby. Together, you will embark on an exciting trip to the iconic Giza Plateau.

First, you will explore the majestic Giza Pyramids, including the Great Pyramid of Khufu—the largest and most famous of the three—and the enigmatic Sphinx, with its gaze fixed upon the vast desert. The grandeur of these structures serves as a testament to ancient Egyptian civilization and its architectural prowess.

For those seeking a deeper experience, consider entering one of the three Great Pyramids.

For lunch, you will dine at Khufu's Restaurant, situated conveniently within the Giza complex. This restaurant offers not only delectable dishes but also stunning views of the pyramids that enhance the dining experience. We only reserve the table; guests will be responsible for their own consumption.

Post-lunch, prepare to be amazed by Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), home to a vast collection of artifacts that delve into the rich history of Egypt, including the treasures of Tutankhamun. The museum's modern architecture juxtaposes beautifully with the ancient relics housed within.

Later in the afternoon, you will return to your hotel around 5 PM to refresh and relax.

Cairo Museum, Coptic Old Cairo, Saladin Citadel & Khan El Khalili Bazaar

After breakfast at the hotel, you will be met by your private guide, who will accompany you in an air-conditioned vehicle throughout the day.

Your first stop is the Egyptian Museum at Tahrir Square, one of the most important museums in the world for ancient Egyptian history. Here, you will explore a remarkable collection of artifacts that trace Egypt's civilization from early dynasties to the age of the Pharaohs, with the highlight of the museum experience being the display of royal antiquities and the treasures that reflect the beliefs, daily life, and artistic achievements of ancient Egypt.

After immersing yourself in history at Tahrir, you will head to Coptic Old Cairo, a peaceful and atmospheric area that reflects the city's religious heritage. In this historic zone, you will visit the Hanging Church, also known as the Church of the Virgin Mary, famous for its iconic position above an ancient structure and its beautiful interior that represents the devotion and endurance of Coptic Christianity. You will then discover St. Sergius Church, a significant spiritual site associated with early Christian history in Egypt and admired for its traditional architecture and religious symbolism. Next, you will visit St. George Catholic Church, adding another layer to your understanding of Cairo's Christian communities across different eras and traditions.

Later, you will proceed to the Citadel of Saladin, a powerful fortress built to protect Cairo and serve as a seat of government through successive periods. From here, you can appreciate both the impressive architecture and the panoramic views over the city.

Finally, you will explore Khan El Khalili Bazaar, one of Cairo's most famous markets, where vibrant streets, traditional crafts, spices, and local souvenirs create a lively atmosphere.

Around 5:00 PM, you will be transferred back to your hotel.

Giza Pyramids & National Museum of Egyptian Civilization

After breakfast at the hotel, you will meet your private guide, and you will travel by private air-conditioned vehicle to begin your day.

Your first visit will be the Giza Pyramids Plateau, where the Great Pyramids of Giza stand as enduring symbols of Ancient Egypt's engineering, ambition, and spiritual beliefs. The plateau is not only a place of iconic monuments, but also a journey into Egypt's ancient worldview—where royal tombs were designed to ensure eternal life. You will have the opportunity to learn how these structures were built and what they represented within Egyptian culture.

You may also opt to enter inside one of the pyramids, experiencing the ancient interior corridors and imagining the atmosphere of a royal burial space.

If you choose to include lunch, you can enjoy a meal at Khufu's Restaurant; we will only reserve the table, and guests will be responsible for their own consumption.

After lunch, you will visit the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization, a modern museum that presents Egypt's long history through interactive exhibitions and well-curated galleries. This museum allows you to view Egyptian civilization not as isolated eras, but as a continuous story of culture, innovation, and heritage.

Around 5:00 PM, you will return to your hotel.

Giza Pyramids, Memphis & Sakkara

After breakfast at the hotel, meet your private guide and travel in a private air-conditioned vehicle to begin your day.

Your first stop is the Giza Pyramids Plateau, where you will admire the iconic pyramids and learn about the powerful dynasty that commissioned these monuments and how the site was planned as a royal necropolis.

You may optionally enter inside one of the pyramids for a more detailed exploration of the tomb's internal structure and design.

For lunch, you have the option to dine at Khufu's Restaurant; we will only arrange the table, and guests will pay for their own meals.

After lunch, you will visit Memphis and its necropolis, an ancient capital known for its monumental architecture and historical importance as a center of worship, politics, and craftsmanship. Here, you will explore how Memphis represented Egypt's strength and continuity across different periods.

Later, you will head to Sakkara, another major archaeological site and home to impressive Step Pyramid heritage. At Sakkara, you will understand how pyramid-building evolved over time and how the necropolis reflected Egypt's deep beliefs in resurrection and eternal life.

Around 5:00 PM, you will return to your hotel.

Dahshur & Sakkara

After breakfast at the hotel, you will meet your private guide, and you will travel by private air-conditioned vehicle to start your journey.

Your day begins in Dahshur, one of Egypt's most important pyramid areas, where you will visit the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid. The Bent Pyramid is especially fascinating because of its distinctive shape, reflecting a transition in pyramid design and showing how ancient builders experimented before achieving the smooth angles of later pyramids. The Red Pyramid, on the other hand, is an impressive achievement in architecture and a landmark of early pyramid evolution, known for its striking color and its historical importance.

If you would like to include lunch, you can enjoy organic food at one of the Dahshur farms; this option offers a more local and nature-inspired experience, while still keeping the day comfortable and enjoyable.

After lunch, you will continue to Sakkara, where you will explore the pyramids and the Serapeum of Sakkara. The Serapeum is a special site connected with the worship of sacred Apis bulls, offering visitors a deeper look into Egyptian religious traditions and burial practices.

The day ends with your return to the hotel around 5:00 PM.

Alexandria Day Tour from Cairo (Option 1)

After breakfast at the hotel, you will be met by your private guide early in the morning, and you will travel by private air-conditioned vehicle to Alexandria.

Your first visit is the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, also known as the new Library of Alexandria. As a major cultural landmark built to honor the memory of the ancient Library of Alexandria, it represents knowledge, learning, and the cultural spirit that Alexandria is famous for. You will discover the significance of this modern library and explore its role as a symbol of intellectual heritage.

Next, you will visit Qaitbay Citadel, a historic fortress overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. The citadel is admired for its strategic design and its connection to Alexandria's long maritime history, offering both cultural value and dramatic views.

For lunch, you can enjoy a meal at a local restaurant; we will reserve only the table, and guests will be responsible for their consumption.

After lunch, you will visit the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa and Pompey's Pillar. The catacombs are an atmospheric underground complex that blends ancient Egyptian, Greek, and Roman influences in a unique burial setting. Pompey's Pillar, meanwhile, is a famous column with impressive historical character and a striking presence in the city.

After your day of sightseeing, you will be transferred back to your Cairo hotel.

Luxor Day Tour: West Bank

After breakfast at the hotel, your private guide will meet you, and you will travel by private air-conditioned vehicle to Luxor's West Bank.

The West Bank is the region associated with ancient Egyptian royal burials and religious beliefs about the afterlife.

Your first stops will be the Valley of the Kings and the Valley of the Queens, where royal tombs are carved into the desert cliffs and decorated with scenes that reflect resurrection, protection, and eternal life. Walking through the history of these valleys is one of the most moving experiences in Luxor, as each tomb tells a story through its artwork and inscriptions.

Next, you will visit the Colossi of Memnon, two monumental statues that once marked the entrance to a royal temple complex. These statues are famous for their scale and their significance in ancient architecture.

Lunch is optional at a local restaurant; we will book only the table and guests are responsible for their consumption.

After lunch, you will visit the Temple of Hatshepsut, one of the most impressive memorial temples in Egypt. Known for its grand terraces and detailed reliefs, it honors one of Egypt's most powerful queens and beautifully reflects the spirit of ancient craftsmanship.

Around 5:00 PM, you will return to your hotel.

Abydos Temple & Dendera Temple from Luxor

Early morning begins with anticipation as you meet your private guide at your Luxor hotel. From there, you'll travel in comfort by a private A/C vehicle, leaving behind the bustle of the city and heading toward two of Egypt's most storied sacred sites.

Your first destination is Abydos Temple, a place that carries deep religious significance. Abydos was revered as one of Egypt's most important cult centers, closely associated with the worship of Osiris, the god of the afterlife, resurrection, and renewal. Walking through the temple grounds, you feel the power of its atmosphere: carved walls, ceremonial spaces, and architectural details that reflect a civilization intensely focused on eternity. Even before you fully grasp the history, Abydos communicates it—this was a sacred setting where spiritual meaning mattered as much as stone and ritual. As your guide explains the temple's symbolism,.

After Abydos, you'll head to Qena, where you can enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. The experience is intentionally simple and real: you'll have the chance to taste local flavors, while remembering that guests are responsible for their own consumption.

Post lunch, you continue to your second masterpiece: Dendera Temple. If Abydos feels intimate and sacred, Dendera feels grand and luminous. Known for its remarkable preservation and its association with the goddess Hathor, this temple complex stands as an impressive testimony to the role of divine worship in Egyptian culture.

Finally, after completing these two iconic visits, you'll return to your Luxor hotel.

Luxor Hot Air Balloon Ride

Early in the morning (around 4:00–4:30 AM), you will meet your representative, and you will be transferred by air-conditioned vehicle for the experience.

This is one of the most romantic and unforgettable ways to see Luxor from above. You will enjoy a sunrise hot air balloon ride, watching the sun rise over the desert landscape and witnessing the temples, valleys, and river scenery in a peaceful, breathtaking panorama. The quiet beauty of the early morning sky makes this ride a highlight for many travelers.

After the balloon flight, you will be transferred back to your hotel around 7:00–7:30 AM.

Luxor Day Tour from Hurghada: West Bank & East Bank

Your day begins early, you meet your private guide at your Hurghada hotel. Then you set off by private A/C vehicle, traveling toward Luxor.

The first and most dramatic segment of the day is the West Bank, where the ancient Egyptians associated the west with life after death. Your exploration begins with the Valley of the Kings, one of Egypt's most unforgettable archaeological landscapes. Walking through this area, it's easy to understand why it became a final resting place for pharaohs.

After the Valley of the Kings, the tour continues with Hatshepsut Temple, a site that offers a different kind of admiration—one shaped by confidence and enduring legacy. Named after one of Egypt's most remarkable female rulers, the temple reflects political strength and visionary ambition.

When the morning visits are complete, the day shifts to comfort and local flavor. You'll enjoy lunch at a local restaurant, guests are responsible for their own consumption.

Post lunch, you travel to the East Bank, the side associated with life, power, and the living presence of the pharaohs. Your first major stop is Karnak Temple, a vast complex that feels almost unreal in its scale. Karnak is not just large—it is layered.

Finally, you visit Luxor Temple, a site that offers a more intimate but equally meaningful conclusion. Luxor Temple serves as a symbolic bridge between past and present—its details and orientation feel purposeful, as if the temple is still directing attention toward the divine.

At the end of the day, you'll return to your Hurghada hotel, carrying the impressions of tomb valleys, temple courtyards, and the quiet awe that comes when history feels close enough to touch.

Aswan Day Tour

After breakfast at the hotel, your private guide will meet you and accompany you by private air-conditioned vehicle.

Your first visit will be Philae Temple, a stunning temple complex associated with the goddess Isis and known for its beautiful architecture and spiritual atmosphere. The temple's location and design make it one of Aswan's most remarkable landmarks, and it offers a deep understanding of Nubian and Egyptian religious connections.

Lunch is optional at a local restaurant; we will reserve only the table and guests will be responsible for their consumption.

After lunch, you will visit the High Dam, an important modern engineering achievement that transformed the region and created Lake Nasser.

Then, you will proceed to the Unfinished Obelisk, a fascinating site that shows the ancient craft process and gives visitors an insight into how obelisks were created and why this one was never completed.

Around 5:00 PM, you will return to your hotel.

Edfu & Kom Ombo

Early in the morning, you will meet your private guide and travel by private air-conditioned vehicle to begin the day.

Your first visit will be Edfu Temple, one of Egypt's best-preserved temple complexes dedicated to Horus. Edfu is famous for its detailed carvings and impressive architecture, offering a powerful glimpse into ancient religious life along the Nile.

After exploring Edfu, you will head to Kom Ombo to visit Kom Ombo Temple and the Crocodile Museum. Kom Ombo is known for its unique layout and for representing different aspects of worship, including beliefs connected with the crocodile god Sobek. The temple's inscriptions and reliefs make it a fascinating stop that highlights how ancient Egyptians viewed both life and nature.

After completing your visits, you will be transferred back to your Luxor hotel or Aswan hotel, depending on your stay.

St. Catherine Excursion from Sharm El Sheikh

This excursion begins in a moment that feels both adventurous and sacred. At 12:00 midnight, you meet your private guide at your Sharm El Sheikh hotel. From there, you travel by private A/C vehicle to the St. Catherine Mountain area.

As you begin the hike toward St. Catherine, the journey becomes more than physical effort. It feels like a gradual climb into stillness, where every step brings you higher above the ordinary world. The mountain's air, the darkness giving way to dawn, and the gradual clearing of the horizon all make the sunrise moment feel earned. When you reach the viewpoint, you can enjoy the sunrise above the mountain, an experience that often turns into a memory people carry for years—because sunrise there is not just a natural event. It feels like a ritual, like the day is being introduced for the first time.

After the hike and sunrise, the day shifts from nature to tradition with a visit to St. Catherine Monastery. The Monastery holds religious importance and a sense of historical continuity that complements the mountain experience. Entering the church environment feels reflective, almost like stepping from the wide, open world into a place shaped by devotion and preservation. Your guide's storytelling helps connect the church to the meaning behind the pilgrimage, making it easier to appreciate why this site has drawn travelers across centuries.

Once the visits are complete, you'll return to your Sharm El Sheikh hotel.
